Old Melbourne Gaol

Engrained into Melbourne's rich history, this incredible space offers multiple options for the ultimate glam or grunge vibe. Dress the venue up with chandeliers and candles, or play on the rawness of the bluestone building.

Perfect for those couples after something a little more unique, this city icon retains the integrity of its original charm, whilst offering a blank shell opportunity with unrivalled creative potential.

The precinct also includes the Former City Watch House and Old Magistrates Court available for ceremonies. The Old Melbourne Gaol is a venue that will stir the senses and get your guests talking.

Capacity for 110 seated guests with dancefloor
Venue hire from $500.
Available from 5pm daily.

Ceremonies

The former City Watch House and Old Magistrates Court sit behind the gothic façade of the Gaol precinct. Used in the past as real holding cells and courts they now form part of the broader museum experience at the Gaol and offer there unique spaces as wedding venues.

The Watch House is the perfect pre-dinner drinks environment, the space is lined with large cells (including a padded room) as well as the old men's and women's recreation rooms where guests can roam and explore the intriguing rooms before making their way across the Alumni courtyard.

The Old Magistrates Court is the perfect space for couples looking for a true-to-form wedding ceremony, guests seated on the bench and celebrant up on the stand – making for a fun and unique setting wedding ceremony setting.

Available from 5.30pm daily.
