Coral Atoll

In the center of the precinct, on ground level and boasting riverside views and private balcony sits the stunning Coral Atoll. Guests can be treated to drinks and canapes overlooking Pinjarra – the impressive 5m long crocodile as he lounges in his lair.

The main feature in this space is a large central tank, casting a beautiful glow over diners and including beautiful coral gardens and hundreds of exotic aquatic animals.

- Floor to ceiling central tank
- Dimmable lighting features
- Access to the aquarium for photography
- Riverside balcony
- Flexible capacity with movable walls

Capacity for 200 seated guests utilizing all areas around the tank with a dancefloor
Access from 6pm daily

Antarctica

Find one person who isn't wowed by the majesty and sophistication of the King Penguins, and the cheeky charms of their Gentoo friends. The perfect spot for a ceremony, time this with their feeding time before blinds are closed to keep their sleeping patterns on schedule, in line with the hours of darkness in Antarctica.

Backdrop including both diving pool and snow covered viewing gallery

Private external area for drinks on arrival and post ceremony

Capacity for 60 seated guests, with an additional 180 standing

Access from 6pm daily
